That One Person

8 0 1

Chapter 1 by LonelyGurl457

There is always that one person in a class... The only SANE person... but she is always the most hated, bullied and ignored...

I am that person

Date: 14th March 2016

"Ugh... I hate Math, it is useless." Jess said that about most lessons, but meant it about math the most. She hated it, because of both the fact there is no point for it, and her class. She was always in the back corner, hood up and in all black. She'd attempted suicide multiple times and scars were fully visible on her arm, but everybody still ignored her. Even her teachers hated her, and at all possible moments made a fool out of her.

Thomas was the class bully, class jester, class favourite and her sworn enemy. She always came into school with a bruise on her nose, but only she and Thomas knew how. Humiliation followed her everywhere she went, people turned their heads from her and even just avoided her as if she were a dangerous creature.

Jessica walked into her math room, only to be greeted with the entire class staring at her.
